Silverware For November Weddings and Other Purposes

There isn't a store in Richmond—we doubt if there's any in the South—that carries as big a stock of silverware or sells as much of it as we do.

Our large output necessitates big purchases, & big purchases mean low prices, both for us & yourselves.

Will you favor us by spending a little while in this department examining the beautiful collection of quadruple plate & sterling ware?

2-quart Water Pitchers, quadruple plate, colonial shape, $5.50.

Baking Dishes, plain & colonial shape, polished, $5.50.

Bread Trays, gray finish, extra good value, $1.95.

Fern Dishes, beautiful designs, $2.

Soup Tureens, in pretty designs, as low as $3.98.

Ten Sets, 4 pieces, grape border designs, $12.98.

The collection of Cut Glass pieces in this store is the admiration of everybody. We've never had as beautiful a showing. Practically exclusive designs & the lowest prices in Richmond.

8-inch Bowls, $3.50.

2-qt. Pitchers, $4.50.

Four values representative of a big stock.

Celery Trays, $3.25.

Compotes, $2.

Boys' Overcoats, $4.50 &amp; $5.00

The picture to the left shows a Storm Coat of all-wool, fancy chevot, with dark stripes, and a collar between 3 & 7 years old. The collar is of velvet; also the piping down the front, mercerized lining..... $4.50

The illustration to the right is that of a Reeler of dark gray wool chevot, lined with gray flannel; cuffs are piped with velvet; sizes, 8 to 14 years..... $5.00

We've made special efforts this season to get the best values in Boys' Overcoats that any Richmond house has ever shown. Judging by the sales & the complimentary references, we've succeeded.

Virginia Weddings

Cobb—Story.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FRANKLIN, VA., October 31.—A beautiful wedding took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. M. Story, at 3:30 o'clock Thursday, October 29th, when his daughter, Mary Edwards Story, became the bride of Mr. Herman Cobb.

The parlors were decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums. The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Ruth Cobb, a sister of the groom. She wore a handsome going-away gown of blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor was dressed in a white head-dress suit, and carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Marion Story was best man. Miss Susie Story, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Miss Fattie Story, the bride's sister, sang "Because." Rev. J. T. Green, of the Methodist Church, tied the nuptial knot. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb left immediately after the ceremony on a bridal tour, which will include the Northern cities.

Among the out-of-town guests were the Misses Pettey, of Suffolk; Miss Beaman, of Carverville; the Misses Cobb, of Ivir, and Miss Hettie Cobb, of Farmville; Mr. Walter Story, of Ashland; and Mr. Elliott Story, of Emporia.

Nevitt—Henderson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., October 31.—A wedding which links together two of the best known families of the aristocracy of Virginia and North Carolina was solemnized here Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Rebecca Lea Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Henderson, of Yanceyville, N. C., became the bride of Mr. Doddridge Henderson, of Petersburg, Va., but formerly of Washington, D. C., and Danville. The wedding took place at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home on Main Street of Mrs. W. N. Shelton, aunt of the bride. In the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. The front parlor of the magnificent home of Mrs. Shelton was tastefully decorated in palms and cut flowers, and emerald green with white chrysanthemums.

The bride entered from the rear parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. F. Henderson, of Durham, N. C., who gave her away. She was attired in a tailored gown of green chiffon broadcloth, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, wearing a handsome medallion, an heirloom, which has long been in the possession of the family. She was met at the improvised altar by the groom, who entered from the hallway, and who was accompanied by his best man, Mr. W. O. Williams, of Danville. Miss Dot Richmond rendered the "Lohengrin" wedding march upon the entrance of the bridal party, and during the ceremony, at which Rev. W. R. Laird, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated, played "Hearts and Flowers."

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Chief Justice Leonard Henderson, of North Carolina. Mr. Nevitt is the son of Mr. R. G. Nevitt, of Washington, D. C., and was formerly the manager in Danville for the National Biscuit Company. Shortly after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Nevitt left for a ten days' honeymoon to Northern points, after which they will be at home at 25 South Market Street, Petersburg.

New School Building in New Kent.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BARHAMSVILLE, VA., October 31.—October 27th marked an epoch in the annals of Old New Kent county. There was gathered at the time honored village of Barhamsville a representative assemblage, whose coming together was to lay with Masonic honors the corner-stone of the new school house. Long have our children been taught in a rented building, that building not being fit, as State Superintendent Eggleston said, to house his first-class Jersey cow.

The orator of the day, Dr. C. V. Waugh, of West Point, Va., was in fine trim, and delighted his audience as only a brainy lover of learning can do.

Mr. N. L. Henley, of Williamsburg, was the next speaker. His was a good, witty talk, and we enjoyed it. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Hunter, president of the recently established Female Institute in Williamsburg. He spoke with much enthusiasm upon the vital issues of the day, and made us glad by his presence.
